--	--------------------------

1. For loans with cash out portion > 100% of home loan amount, the final applicable interest rate will be weighted average of grid rates applicable on home loan and property power (cash out) portion respectively.
2. For loans with cash out portion <=10% of home loan amount, home loan interest rate will be applicable.
3. Loans with more than 10% enhancement and up to 100% will follow weighted average pricing or HLEN grid whichever is lower shall be applicable.

Note:

1. The final pricing on the loan will be based on :
 - a. Loan Amount;
 - b. Product/ facility type offered;
 - c. Internal Citibank Loan assessment parameters.
2. The final pricing will be within the range mentioned above.
3. The pricing grid will be reviewed periodically and the final pricing on the loan will be based on applicable interest rates during that point in time.
4. Marginal cost of funds based lending rate (MCLR) refers to 3 month tenor MCLR of Citibank N.A. published by the Bank from time to time. All new loans shall be linked to MCLR.
5. While the pricing rates are mentioned in absolute terms above, all new loan originations post 01, April 2016 are linked to MCLR.
